

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

USC Alumni Association to Honor Two LAS Graduates at 77th Annual Alumni Awards

Academy Award-winning filmmaker Taylor Hackford to Receive University's Highest Alumni Honor

March 31, 2010

Los Angeles – Two USC College of Letters, Arts & Sciences graduates are among the seven honorees at the 77th Annual USC Alumni Awards on April 24, 2010, at the Westin Bonaventure Hotel in downtown Los Angeles.

Academy Award-winning filmmaker Taylor Hackford '67 will receive the Asa V. Call Alumni Achievement Award, the University of Southern California's highest alumni honor. Named for the 1931-32 president of the USC Alumni Association, the Asa V. Call Alumni Achievement Award "recognizes alumni who have demonstrated exceptional commitment to the university and the community by giving generously of their time, energy, and leadership." Past recipients include Grammy Award-winning trumpeter Herb Alpert, Apollo 11 astronaut and first man on the moon Neil Armstrong and former Secretary of State Warren M. Christopher.

In the 32 years since he won an Academy Award for his live-action short Teenage Father (1978), Hackford has directed such films as An Officer and a Gentleman (1982), Dolores Claiborne (1995), The Devil's Advocate (1997) and Ray (2004), which earned him two Academy Award nominations. His producing credits include La Bamba (1987) and the Academy Award-winning documentary When We Were Kings (1996). Hackford is currently president of the Directors Guild of America.

Jane Bensussen MA '69 will receive the Alumni Service Award for "outstanding volunteer efforts on behalf of the university." A past president of the Trojan Guild of Los Angeles and a member of the USC Davis School of Gerontology Board of Councilors, she will share the honor with her husband, former USC trustee and past USC Alumni Association president Gale Bensussen '70 (Marshall). The Bensussens are benefactors of the Bensussen Research Floor of the USC School of Pharmacy.

The USC Alumni Association will also recognize four other distinguished alumni for their achievements and contributions. Five-time Olympic medalist Janet Evans '95 (Annenberg), USC trustee and Cogent, Inc. co-founder Ming Hsieh '83, MS '84 (Viterbi) and Captain Melissa Ward '86 (Marshall), the first African-American woman to serve as a commercial airline captain, will receive Alumni Merit Awards, recognizing "individuals whose remarkable accomplishments speak well for the range and quality of a USC education." Roger Rossier MS '62, EdD '72 (Rossier), benefactor of the USC Rossier School of Education and chair of the USC Orange County President's Council, will receive an Alumni Service Award.

The 2010 USC Alumni awards will also feature a special alumni tribute to retiring USC President Steven B. Sample and his wife Kathryn, commemorating their 19 years of service to the university.

"This year's honorees represent the very best of the Trojan Family," said Scott Mory, USC Alumni Association CEO. "We look forward to welcoming them, and our guests, to the 77th Annual Alumni Awards."

Every year since 1932, the USC Alumni Association has paid tribute to distinguished members of the Trojan Family. The annual Alumni Awards is the premier event sponsored by the Alumni Association. All proceeds from the event support the Alumni Association's programs, services and scholarships. Past honorees include architect Frank O. Gehry, opera great Marilyn Horne, WNBA star Lisa Leslie and screen legend John Wayne. For more information, please visit <http://alumni.usc.edu/awards>.

ABOUT THE USC ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Founded in 1923, the University of Southern California Alumni Association honors through its many events and programs the university's rich history and the intellectual, cultural and economic contributions of the Trojan Family. A full-time staff headed by the alumni association CEO helps 300,000+ USC alumni worldwide build and maintain lifelong connections to their alma mater and one another. For more information, call (213) 740-2300 or visit <http://alumni.usc.edu>.

Contact: Tim Knight at (213) 740-5948 or timothy.knight@usc.edu