Programs for Youth and
High School Students

Workshop Session 1:
11:15 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Workshop Session 2:
1:15 – 2:00 p.m.

This year the USC Alumni Association is proud to expand the conference program to include workshop sessions designed for young and future Trojans. All workshop sessions are filled on a first come, first-served bases on the day of the conference.

The University of Southern California and USC Alumni Association, do not assume responsibility for any child under the age of 18 years left unattended. Please be sure to pick up and drop off your child in the assigned workshop room before and after each session.

Saturday – Workshop Session 1 from 11:15 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. (appropriate for ages 7-12)

Science Outreach (SCout) is a USC student-based organization that works with elementary schools in the surrounding areas to teach 2nd and 3rd graders the joy of science! From shooting bottle rockets to extracting DNA from strawberries, SCout strives to empower young children to be excited about the STEM field. Inspire your young #stemgirls with this workshop.

Saturday – Workshop Session 2 from 1:15 – 2:00 p.m. (appropriate for ages 7-15)

Lemonade Day is a USC student-based organization that works to inspire the youth in the surrounding area to be entrepreneurs. Working with a standard business model focused on an end goal of creating a profitable lemonade stand, USC mentors teach elementary students the fundamentals of starting a business from creating a business plan to asking for a loan and pitching their business. Inspire your young #girlboss with this workshop.

USC ADMISSIONS

Saturday – Workshop Session 1 from 11:15 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Saturday – Workshop Session 2 from 1:15 – 2:00 p.m.
(appropriate for middle and high school students)

USC is a place where many students find a home and success. Come learn about programs and opportunities available to our undergraduates. Led by a current USC admission counselor, this session will also cover the admission process so students know how to best prepare and present their passion, power and wisdom to the admission committee.
