

USC: THE TROJAN TRADITION

A classic giclée print created especially for Trojans by artist Jane Wooster Scott.

Commissioned as an artistic depiction of the USC campus, this beautifully framed print is the perfect complement to every Trojan's office, library or den. The original oil painting has been reproduced in giclée format, then numbered and hand-signed by the artist. The Trustee Edition, printed on canvas, features a special artist's remarque — a small, original painting applied to the giclée print, making it truly one of a kind. Jane Wooster Scott, one of America's foremost folk artists, has had her work exhibited in settings that include galleries, celebrity homes and even the White House. Your purchase of this wonderful work of art helps support the programs and services of the USCAA.
