

USC Alumni Association Volunteer Agreement

To help us ensure a safe and enjoyable experience for all members of the Trojan Family, hosts are expected to create a welcoming environment and adhere to the following standards:

- Remember that you represent the Trojan Family and must always strive to embody and demonstrate the five traits of a Trojan.
- Be considerate and respectful of fellow guests, students, and all other personnel.
- Be professional at all times. Refrain from demeaning, discriminatory, intimidating, or harassing behavior and speech, including the use of foul language.
- Do not attempt to contact a student or other guest for purposes not directly related to the event.
- Be knowledgeable of and willing to share current trends in your profession or industry and offer advice or resources to students and alumni that will help them along in their career path.
- Abide by all rules and regulations of the University of Southern California, USC Alumni Association, and the space/venue in which the event is held (or technology used).

The USC Alumni Association reserves the right to remove a host or guest from any USCAA Event or Program at any time, and at its discretion. Participants found to be in violation of any of the expressed University or Alumni Association policies and/or codes of conduct may be excluded from future university events and programs.
