

Volunteer with USC.

USC Alumni Day of Service FAQs

I want to host a project but am not sure how to create one. How should I start? We suggest reaching out to your local community groups for assistance, or to these organizations that have global volunteer opportunities:

VolunteerLA
Volunteer Match
Just Serve
All for Good

Habitat for Humanity
AARP Create the Good
Feeding America
American Red Cross

Where can I find virtual volunteer project opportunities? Many organizations offer virtual volunteer opportunities for groups or individuals. A few are listed below:

Meals on Wheels United Way
Translators Without Borders
Catch A Fire
UN Volunteers
DoSomething.org
Zooniverse

Color A Smile Volunteer Match
Be My Eyes Library of Congress
National Park Services
Smithsonian
Warm-Up America

What are some past projects?

Animal Care

Pasadena Humane Society

Art & Crafts

Child Creativity Lab

Beautification | Gardening

Community Cleanup

Construction

Battleship IOWA Museum Los Angeles

Healthcare | Hospital

Medical Ministries International

Hunger | Homelessness

Regional Food Bank

Feed My Starving Children

Youth Outreach

Boy and Girls Club of America

How do I find volunteers for my project? Your approved project will be listed on the USC Alumni Day of Service website. Volunteers will be able to sign up there. Although the USC Alumni Association will promote all projects, we encourage you to spread the word about your project to your fellow alums, friends and family.

Please note: Your participant capacity must be based on venue or local health guidelines (whichever is less). Have questions? Email Amy Chi.

Fight On!